From the Librarian...

CATALOG AVAILABLE FROM THE INTERNET

The library's new catalog has been up and running since Spring. This article will deal with some of the features of the catalog that you might not yet be aware.

As a patron with a valid library card, you can create your own account on-line and view your current check outs, fines and holds. You can place holds and renew books also. When you log in to the website—www.bangorlibrary.org—and go to Catalog you can create a new account and pick your own username and password. If you need any assistance in this process, please contact the library and the library staff would be very willing to assist you.

On another note, please be advised that there is a change in the computer printing policy here at the library. Be aware of what you are printing because the library will now charge for each page printed—even if you made a mistake and selected print several times resulting in multiple unwanted copies.

News from the Board—The Library Board of Trustees is pleased to announce two “new” members to the library board. Pam Nelson and Jacque Ceraul will be returning to the library board to serve. Pam and Jacque have both served on the library board previously but have consented to return. The library looks forward to their enthusiasm and dedication in the upcoming years.
